President's Message

Message for Handbook:

I wish very much that you knew how beautiful Montreat is. Our campus, buildings, and the whole setting really inspire us to do our best.

Our faculty and staff are selected with great care. They have chosen to work in a Christian institution because of its unusual opportunities for Christian service. You will enjoy working with them as they seek to help you develop your whole Christian personality. They will give of their very best for you, and you will be happy as you likewise respond with your very best.

We believe that one should have a good time while receiving a Christian education, so our social-recreational program is full and well planned. From this, as in all other relationships here, you will receive according to the enthusiasm you put into it.

The simple rules you find in this booklet are the outgrowth of the thinking and practice of fine young women living together. The spirit of co-operation and fellowship which we experience in the observance of them means much happiness for all of us.

We are confident that you are the type of superior young woman we want at Montreat, and we anticipate your coming with great joy. There is genuine satisfaction and delight for us as we work together to make a more beautiful Montreat.

If ever there is anything which you think I can do, I hope you will give me the opportunity to try.

We open wide our doors and welcome you to Montreat!

Most cordially yours,

J. RUPERT McGREGOR

Class Regulations

All excuses for absences from classes must be approved by the office.

It is expected that students will not be absent without just cause. The responsibility for any work missed because of absence rests entirely upon the student.

Each high school student may cut each class once each semester regardless of grades, though this is not recommended for those students making very low grades.

Students who make all A's and B's on the six weeks' term reports and who receive not more than two majors may cut classes the second Saturday after the term ends.

For each cut taken when not due, the student's grade on the subject is lowered Five Points on the next term report.

For each class cut without permission the student is also given 5 majors.

Three tardies to one class are equivalent to one cut.

Chapel Attendance

Chapel exercises are regarded as an essential part of school work, and attendance is required of all students on the same basis as regular classes. Chapel is held daily each morning.

Privileges, Rules and Regulations

The following rules and regulations have been made as a result of some need and are not meant to be in any case mere arbitrary restraints. Some have been made that the living together of the whole group might be more pleasant and harmonious; some that studying might be easier; some for actual physical protection and safety; and some for better cooperation between the school and the homes of the students. The school feels that each student is responsible not only for observing the rules herself but for helping others observe them.

For the violation of any regulation a major or minor may be given. Violations are to be reported to the office in written form, with the name of the offender, the nature of the offense, the date and the signature of the person reporting.

15. The School reserves the right to ask the withdrawal of any girl whose influence is harmful or who is out of harmony with the spirit of the School.

The Classification System

In order that those students who prove themselves efficient and trustworthy may take advantage of all possible privileges without being restrained by the conduct of the less efficient and trustworthy, the classification system described below has been devised.

At the beginning of school all students are on first class and remain there for the first term unless some misdemeanor warrants their being placed on a lower class. The system is based upon 100 points divided as follows:

Grades	20 points
Deportment	50 "
Neatness	10 "
Participation	10 "
Attitude	10 "

Major and Minor points are given as penalties for the abuse of regulations.

One point is subtracted from the "20" points on grades for each 5 points the average grade is lowered.

Two points are subtracted from the "50" points on Deportment for each major received.

Neatness includes personal appearance as well as appearance of room.

Participation means acceptance of responsibility—2 points are subtracted for each major received in athletics.

Attitude towards class work, regulations and the general activities of the school is considered.

Students who receive 90 or more points are on first class. Students who receive 85 to 89 points, inclusively, are on second. Students who receive 80 to 84 points, inclusively, are on third.

Students who receive a classification below 75 are on restriction.

School Songs

ALMA MATER

Tune: Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms.

How dear to our hearts will the memory be
Of the days we have spent in thy care,
When within thy dear halls we have lingered awhile
All thy gifts and thy blessings to share.
So the memory of thee will ever remain,
While we think of each dear hallowed scene;
And the bonds of true loyalty, blest through the years,
Our affections will ever keep green.

Then, to thee, Alma Mater, we'll ever be true,
Though the coming years scatter us far;
And the ideals you taught us will ever be bright
Shining out as our life's guiding star.
We will cherish thy name wherever we roam,
And forever thy praises repeat.
Hail to thee, Alma Mater, our happiest days
Are the days we have spent in Montreat.

—Lucille B. Armistead

MAY DAY SONG

She comes, she comes, our radiant queen,
And joyfully we sing.
She spreads the hills and fields with green,
Our lady of the spring.
Let all the universe rejoice,
Upon this gladsome day,
And spread the tiding with one voice,
'Tis May, May, May!
'Tis May, May, May!
Winter winds are far away,
All the earth is bright and gay,
And joyfully, again we say,
'Tis May, May, May!

Commencement Songs

PROCESSIONAL

The children of the King are we,
The children of the King;
His emblem bearers we would be,
And so his banner bring;
Its colors gleam all gloriously,
As forth its folds we fling;
The children of the King are we,
The children of our King.

O heed with us the happy call
To worship of our King.
Come join us in His temple all
Who hear His church bells ring;
Your souls shall feel His blessing fall,
And know His comforting;
O heed with us the happy call
To worship of our King.

The earth, it is His garden fair,
The garden of the King;
Where flowers and little children share
His love for everything;
The whole wide world lies in His care,
Beneath His brooding wing;
The earth, it is His garden fair,
The garden of the King.

Our lives are links of years and days,
Wherein to serve our King;
Like Him, to help in loving ways,
While homeward journeying;
Our lives, our lives, shall sing His praise,
As now our voices sing;
Our lives are links of years and days,
Wherein to serve our King.

The music for this was composed by Mrs. Crosby Adams

RECESSIONAL

BRIGHTLY GLEAMS OUR BANNER

Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving wand'rers onward
To their home on high.
Journeying o'er the desert
Gladly thus we pray;
And with hearts united
Take our heavenward way.

Jesus, Lord and Master,
At Thy sacred feet,
Here with hearts rejoicing
See Thy children meet;
Often we have left Thee
Often gone astray;
Keep us mighty Saviour,
In the narrow way.

All our days direct us
In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe;
Bid Thine angels shield us
When the storm clouds low'r,
Pardon, Lord, and save us
In the last dread hour.

Then with saints and angels
May we join above,
Off'ring pray'rs and praises
At Thy throne of love;
When the toil is over
Then come rest and peace,
Jesus in His beauty,
Songs that never cease.

Refrain: Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving mortals onward
To their home on high.

MONTREAT GIRL

Now when a Montreat girl walks down the street,
She looks a hundred per from head to feet—
She has a word, a smile, a winning way, and
When you see her, boy, you'll recognize her and you'll say—
Now there's a girl I'd like to know,
She has that Montreat spirit, pep, and go,
And just to look at her is quite a treat,
It's hard to beat,
A MONTREAT GIRL!

M-O-N-T-R-E-A-T

M-o-n-t-r-e-a-t, Montreat! Rah!
Our Montreat High School, we'll sing to you.
Pride of Carolina's land,
We love you, yes, we do, dear Montreat.
Long may we cherish thee,
Love and adore.
Sing praise and honor for ever more.
Oh, see those girls of Montreat
A-standing in a line,
And all of them are mighty, mighty fine,
They know just how to work there;
They know just how to play,
Oh, Montreat girls, we'll cheer you every time
Now Fassifern's not slow;
Flora MacDonald's on the go;
And Winthrop's mighty, mighty fine;
But give us, oh, give us,
Oh, how I wish you would,
That dear old Montreat High School every time!

MONTREAT

Montreat, we're always thinking of you,
Montreat,
We'll tell the world we love you.
Don't forget we're yelling for you.
We will play, and sing, and dance and everything
For Montreat,
You are our inspiration; days are never blue.
And after all is said and done,
There is really only one.
Oh Montreat High School ,it's you!

BOARD SONG

We are the girls,
Who are stout hearted girls,
Who will fight for the board we adore.
Doing a part with a will and a heart
As we sing and rejoice evermore.
Sunshiny weather
We'll all pull together
The rain never clouds our sky
We the High School Board girls are the best ones in the land
We our friendships link
As we go marching hand in hand.

M CLUB SONG

We're the girls who have the M Club rep
And hold its honor high,
We're the girls who have the M Club pep
And never let it die.
The girls who wear their golden M's with pride
The spirit that no other club has
Besides it's a toast to the host the girls we boast
The High School M Club.
We're birds of a feather
We'll all stick together,
For one golden M to receive
And now that we've won it
We'll wear it with pride
And the M Club will never leave.

APACHE TRIBE SONG

Well it's "Hip! Hip! Hurrah!"
The Apache Tribe is here,
With our red and white gleaming bright,
We're the best tribe of the year.
Our chief is yelling to us
The tribe all hears her call,
Let's take the lead, that's all we need,
So let's play ball!

BLACK FOOT TRIBE SONG

Here we come,
Here we come,
Opposing teams had better run
For the Black Foots are coming to fight
We can play,
We can play,
In a good and winning way
We can win with our black and our white.
For its hard to beat a team that's so complete
A team that is fair and square and strong
So give a cheer for the best tribe of the year
For the Black Foots will never go wrong
Keep them fighting
For the Black Foots will never go wrong.

CHICKASAW TRIBE SONG

On to victory,
On to victory,
This is our tribe cry.
Shout together all the louder
Never let it die
Rah, Rah, Rah!
On to victory,
On to victory,
Our tribe's going to win.
So fight Chickasaws to the finish
Don't give in.

SEQUOIA TRIBE SONG

Sequoia is the tribe of brave and skillful girls.
They are always ready for a game when blue and white unfurls.
They aren't impressed by other feats of any tribe but blue
And when they come upon the field, they know just what to do.

Chorus:
Sequoias! Sequoias! They ramble all around
Hey! in and out of town
Hey! Sequoias! Sequoias!
They ramble till you mow 'em down.

Colors: Blue and White.
